

ST. ANDREW'S PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

COMMUNION TRINITY SUNDAY JUNE 11th, 2017

GATHERING TO WORSHIP

Prelude

Welcome and Announcements

Call to Worship: Based on Psalm 104:24-34O

Minister: Lord, how glorious are your words. In wisdom, you have made them all. You made the sea and everything in it.

People: You fill the earth with good things.

Minister: You send forth your spirit, which creates and renews the earth and everything in it.

People: We will sing to the Lord as long as we live!

Minister: May our worship be pleasing to God, whom we bless with praises today!

Opening Hymn: Come, thou almighty King No. 293

Prayer of Adoration and Confession

Creator God, we gather with joyful hearts and uplifted spirits, remembering all you have done for us and call us to do for others. With the power of your word you brought the universe into being, creating all things in beauty. In your generosity, you imprinted humankind with your image and designed a world where we could come to know you and walk in your light. We are grateful for the ways you come to us: as Christ, a brother who taught us how to live in the world and how to love you fully; as the Holy Spirit, who guides us and works through us to build your kingdom. In all ways and at all times, you are perfect grace and hope and we are moved to worship you as Creator, Redeemer and Guide.

People: We confess that we have not lived as you instructed us. Entrusted to be the caretakers of your world, we choose instead to live selfishly. Sent into the world to proclaim the good news of Christ, we shy away and remain silent. Called to live peacefully with one another, we favour paths of division and discord. Help us to remember your desires for our lives and ways of living. Call us back to your path and teach us how to be your sent people. In the name of Jesus our brother and Saviour we pray, amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Majestic God, we question: what are human beings that you are mindful of them, mortals that you care for them? Yet, it is you that created us and blessed us with life and purpose. You draw us close and forgive us when we stray. Knowing this, we can live at peace with the assurance that we are forgiven.

Your Work, O God, needs many hands,

our offering now we make:

Be pleased to use it as your own, we ask for Jesus' sake.

It is with regret that the Session has accepted Nancy Robinson's resignation as our beloved church secretary. We also regretfully accept Ken Robison's resignation as a faithful and active elder on the Session. Both Ken and Nancy have served our congregation and community faithfully for many years, and as you all know, their ministry among us will be deeply missed. They will both be devoting their time and energies to dealing with Ken's health challenges at this time. Many of you have already sent cards or made phone calls, and Ken and Nancy really appreciate your love and support. Please continue to pray for and support them during this challenging time.

With you in Christ's service, St. Andrew's Session.
